FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

KENNETH JACKSON,

Plaintiff,

v.

EXPERIAN INFORMATION SOLUTIONS,
INC., OCWEN LOAN SERVICING, LLC,
RESIDENTIAL CREDIT SOLUTIONS, INC.,

Defendants.

Case No. 1:15-cv-11140

Hon. Matthew F. Kennelly

DECLARATION OF ADAM W. WIERS

I, Adam W. Wiers, declare and state as follows:

1. I am a partner at the law firm of Jones Day and one of the attorneys representing Experian Information Solutions, Inc. in the above captioned case.
2. On September 16, 2016, I took the deposition of Plaintiff Kenneth Jackson at Jones Day's offices at 77 West Wacker Drive, Chicago, IL. Plaintiff was defended by his attorney Dan McGarry of Sulaiman Law Group.
3. During the deposition, Plaintiff admitted that portions of paragraph 43 of the Complaint which alleged that he had suffered credit denials and mental anguish flowing from those credit denials were inaccurate. Immediately following the admission, Mr. McGarry demanded a break, claiming that he needed to use the facilities.
4. After going off the record, Mr. McGarry asked Plaintiff if he too needed to use the facilities. Plaintiff indicated that he was fine and did not need a break. After a few moments of awkward silence, I asked Mr. McGarry if he actually needed to use the facilities, or whether the request for a break was just a ruse to get off the record. Mr. McGarry then stood up and proceeded to reprimand me in front of his client about the line of questioning regarding the

6. In September 2016, Experian filed its first two motions for summary judgment in these cases. In these motions, Experian argues, among other things, that the cases should be summarily dismissed for a failure to demonstrate actual damage. Attached as Exhibits A and B to this Declaration are Experian's briefs in support filed in both of those cases.

7. On September 22, 2016, Experian served Plaintiff with a copy of its Motion for Rule 11 Sanctions. On October 12, 2016, Plaintiff's counsel acknowledged receipt of the Motion and asked whether the problem would be remedied if they simply stipulated that Plaintiff's credit denials were received after filing the Complaint. We responded by indicating that no such stipulation was necessary, as we already have deposition testimony to the effect, and the only acceptable cure would be dismissal of the Complaint. Plaintiff's counsel indicated that they may move to amend the Complaint, something Experian indicated it would oppose.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on October 14, 2016.
